

Compound Words

Compound words are two small words that join together to make a bigger new word.

Circle the compound word in each group.

bedsheet      computer      jump      ant burger      apple      cupboard      run dancefloor      building      rose      mobile dog      eat      keychain      will playground      gorilla      shall      John television      soft      doorbell      ride