

ONLINE

WORKSHEETS for KIDS
.COM

CRAB

Crabs have a thick external skeleton called an exoskeleton. It is a shell made of calcium carbonate and provides protection for the soft tissue underneath. Crabs live in all the world's oceans, in fresh water, and on land.

