

ONLINE

WORKSHEETS for KIDS
.COM

SEAL

Seals have a layer of fat under skin called blubber, which keeps them warm in cold water. Their slick fur coat is streamlined for gliding through water, they can spend months at sea, seals can sleep underwater.

